

Cisco Quad Offerings

Key Benefits

- Easy content search
- Activity feeds and watch lists can be viewed at a glance
- Built on a bedrock of policy and security
- Enabled through a unified communications fabric
- Supports an “Integrated Workspace”

With explosive growth of technology and the use of social media, enterprises are witnessing a redistribution of working styles and patterns. Dispersed workforces, ever expanding content, cross organizational teams, augmented video communications and the use of social software for business purposes are a paradigm shift from the standard way of communications to a new integrated way of communication.

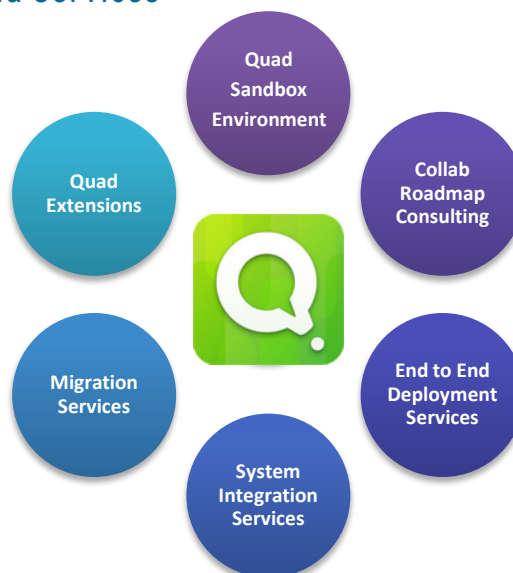

Cisco Quad, an Enterprise Social Platform, combines the power of social networking with unified communications, business information and content management systems, enabling enterprises to:

- Break down organizational silos
- Support employee innovation
- Facilitate group communication
- Improve the efficiency of business processes
- Provide social networking

Cisco Quad sits at the nexus of four areas: Integration of Content, Communications Platform, Business Transactional Systems and Social Capabilities.

Persistent is engaged with Cisco in a Go-To-Market strategy for deployment of collaboration solutions using Cisco Quad. Our team of dedicated Cisco Quad experts can analyze and formulate customer use cases. Our experienced architects help provide customers with collaborative solutions which improve productivity and enhance innovation by facilitating the exchange of ideas.

Persistent Quad Services

Persistent provides the following collaboration services using Cisco Quad:

- Quad Sandbox Environment

Our experts host a Quad Sandbox instance in the cloud for your trial which enables short term proof of concepts with light customizations. Our services exhibit how Cisco Quad can fit into your existing technology stack and exceed the collaboration needs of your organization

- Collaboration Roadmap Consulting

Persistent's Roadmap Consulting services help enterprises to formulate Program Governance, Use Cases, Adoption Strategy and Business Integration plans. As a part of Roadmap Consulting, Persistent can help enterprises set targets for adoption and define metrics in terms of usage which will help enterprises measure their ROI

- End-to-End Deployment Services

Persistent can provide customers end-to-end services around Quad deployment from the planning stages to go-live. Persistent will work together with the IT groups in enterprises to deploy and manage their Quad instance

- System Integration Services

These services include integrating Quad with the existing subsystems. Our experts can implement Single Sign-on between Quad and existing intranet applications, build Quad widgets that interact with EIS, integrate with enterprise search. We can also execute branding, theme and layout related changes

- Migration Services

Our experts ensure that not only groups and users from LDAP/ user store but also all data from existing collaboration systems is efficiently migrated to Quad, along with user identity and RBAC rules

- Quad Extensions

Persistent has built a number of independent add-ons that extend the functionality and integration of Quad in your enterprise. They range from MS Office and Outlook integration, to social activity visualization tools to integrations with leading Social Business Process Management platforms - all significantly enhancing the value of an already robust platform
